The found items will be stored by the Security Service and recorded in a register log. In order to retrieve the lost items, the Security Service Manager should be contacted with a description of the item.

AUA is not responsible for lost items.