AUA students, faculty and staff can obtain materials that are not available in the AUA Library via Interlibrary Loan and Document Delivery Services, within the framework of the established agreement with:

- Armenian Libraries
- AMICAL Member Libraries
- University of Texas at Arlington
- California State University Northridge Oviatt Library
- Libraries Worldwide through WorldShare

Patrons may request library materials in compliance with the Copyright Law (Title 17, U.S. Code).

The Interlibrary Loan and Document Delivery Request Form is available on the library website. The normal turnaround time for receiving the requested library material is within two-three business days.
