

Copyright

Effective as of: 04.16.2007

American University of Armenia

Policy for Publication

Policy Number: ACAD20060006

Copyright is the ownership and control of the intellectual property in original works of authorship, which are subject to copyright law. It is the policy of the University that all rights in copyright shall remain with the creator unless the work is a work-for-hire (and copyright vests in the University under copyright law), is supported by a direct allocation of funds through the University for the pursuit of a specific project, is commissioned by the University, or is otherwise subject to contractual obligations.

Related Documents

Intellectual Property and Commercialization